

NARRATIVES OF CARE: PUERTO RICO

Media Inquiries

Narratives of Care: Puerto Rico is a narrative podcast series exploring how caregiving is shaped by place through oral histories centered on families navigating cancer and dementia.

Charlotte Bayala is available for interviews and conversations about the series, caregiving in Puerto Rico, oral-history storytelling, and the broader conditions that shape how families provide care.

For interviews, press requests, advance listening access, or additional project information, please get in touch.
